Board Refutes Charges Made in Hand Bill

A statement issued by the Newmarket public school board early this week gave a point-by-point refutation of charges against the new school project contained in a hand bill. The hand bill, which was printed in Toronto, was unsigned. It called upon the ratepayers to "ask for an investigation into the new school project". A second line read "Heavy Increased Taxation".

Four hundred copies of the hand-bill were placed in the post office on Saturday morning.

The school board statement was prefaced by the belief that the hand-bills were inspired by personal animosity rather than the desire to serve the community. "The very fact that the person who wrote it didn't have the courage to sign it is proof this," the statement said.

The sheet was torn across the bottom and it is believed that either a name or the printer's label had been torn from it.

The facts on the new school are: The "Heavy Increased Taxation" referred to in the bill amounts to, at the most, one mill a year for 20 years.

The bill charged that no consideration was given for a joint school with East Gwillimbury with shared cost of building and maintenance. When the project was first undertaken, a joint school was discussed by the board and rejected because of lack of interest on the part of East Gwillimbury, the need to meet Newmarket's school requirements first, and the fact that a joint building would have to be placed on the north side of Davis Dr., meaning that Newmarket children would have to cross a highway to reach school.

The bill said that the basements of the existing schools could be converted into quarters for an auxiliary class, manual training, kindergarten and domestic science. This was considered by the board and rejected because of cost and because the department of education in Toronto will not assist on manual training and domestic science rooms for a school population as small as that of Newmarket.

The hand bill charged that wings could be placed on exist-

"Me and My Shadow" Opens Dramatic Season

The Newmarket Dramatic club has announced that the first play of the season, "Me and My Shadow," a lively comedy, will be presented Nov. 4 and 5.

With the hope of encouraging greater attendance for its plays, the dramatic club has adopted a procedure used by a similar group in Kingston, whereby a silver collection is taken in place of the regular admission charge.

The dramatic club is a non-profit organization with the sole aim of providing entertainment for the public and an opportunity for everyone interested to take an active part in the production.

The curtain will rise at 8.15 p.m., Nov. 4, and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Children must be accompanied by a parent.

ing schools at "a fraction of the cost". Department of education officials denied this, pointing out that the cost of school rooms, whether as wings or in a new school, were about the same, sometimes higher in wings because of the cost of changes to the old buildings.

The bill charges that the new school is not actually needed but population figures on file show the charge to be baseless.

The new school is being built in close consultation with, and with the technical advice of the department of education officials in Toronto. The architecture, size and all other details have been checked and approved by the department, which pays 45 percent of the total cost of land, furnishings and building of $100,000.

Hallowe'en Party At Stuart Scott For School Pupils

Final plans were completed for a gala Hallowe'en party for the school children of Newmarket at the regular meeting of the recreation commission Tuesday. Finding themselves without a place large enough to stage the big show—they usually use the arena—the commission settled on the softball diamond at the Stuart Scott school.

Lights will be strung across the diamond so that the usual judging of costumes can take place. Program will also include several comic and movie shorts, shown on a screen to be erected on the back stop of the softball diamond. Clowns will help keep the kiddies amused. Following the judging and movies a monster bonfire will be lit and candies, apples and peanuts will be distributed.

Present plans are to have the Stuart Scott and King George school pupils meet at the latter location, proceed along Niagara St. to Queen thence to Main. This section of the parade will be led by the Trumpet Band. The pupils from St. John's will leave their school and parade to Queen and Main Sts. Alexander Muir pupils proceed north on Prospect to Main St. via Queen St. and will join the other sections of the parade at this point. Scheduled moving off time from the Queen and Main St. point will be 6.30 p.m. Parade will proceed to south end of Main St. via D'Arcy St. to the Stuart Scott grounds. Both Newmarket Citizens' and Trumpet Bands will take part.

In the event of rain the program will switch to the town hall. Better keep your fingers crossed. Kiddies, for a warm, clear evening.

Ladies of the Legion Auxiliary have offered to bag the candies. Mrs. Brown will be in charge of James Henry Gibney, Newmarket, died in York County hospital on October 24, after being in failing health for many months.

Born in Holt in 1885, he was the son of Charles and Elizabeth Gibney. He started working in Cane's factory in his early teens. There he learned woodworking. He worked at the same trade for the last 22 years at Office Specialty Co.

Mr. Gibney was a member of Trinity United church. He married Hattie Armitage in 1910. Surviving are his wife, son Delbert and daughter Mrs. John Rutledge (Marion), Newmarket, four brothers, Norman, Queensville, Eugene, Toronto, Samuel and Wesley, Newmarket.

LIONS SAID FORCE OF GOOD IN COMMUNITY

The Newmarket Lions club was addressed on Monday night by Deputy District Governor Fred Campbell of Stouffville, who told his audience that Lions clubs provided a common factor of service which served to unify communities in the pursuit of same objectives.

Taking for his title, the phrase "I am a Roman," Mr. Campbell drew a parallel between the solidity of the Roman Empire and the rights its citizens were able to demand, and the Lions clubs with their common endeavors to serve. Mr. Campbell said that the force of the combined efforts of more than 400,000 Lions club members "should surely bring results."

He referred to Melvin Jones, founder of Lionism, as a man of dynamic idealism and wondered whether he was fully appreciated for his accomplishment in welding such a strong bond of service in communities across Canada and the United States as well as in South America and Europe.

Mr. Campbell was introduced by W. M. Cockburn and thanked by A. C. Lord.

Monday night the club also approved the purchase of an emergency operating room lamp for York County hospital at a cost of $400.

Still Seek Body Of Hunter Lost In Cook's Bay

The body of James Loveridge, Robinson Ave., Scarborough, who drowned in Lake Simcoe Saturday, still has not been found. Dragging operations were carried out Monday and Tuesday in Cook's Bay. Yesterday the water was rough and dragging was stopped. It is hoped that the body will come to the surface itself.

Loveridge disappeared on Saturday morning in choppy waters on Cook's Bay when a row boat in which he and a companion were duck hunting overturned during high winds.

Three boats were dragging Monday and Tuesday. Operations are being conducted by local police, William Hill, Carl Morton and J. Jardine, along with Department of Lands and Forests officers. A Department of Lands and Forests boat is being used. On Monday afternoon water was rough and hindered dragging but an offshore breeze brought calm water on Tuesday.

Loveridge was hunting with Joseph Hitching, Galt Ave., Toronto, when their boat turned over. A third man in the hunting party, Frank Johnston, Jones Ave., Toronto, was in another boat but he was not able to help because of the high waves.

Art Dawson of Dawson's boat works reached the overturned boat in his motor launch but Loveridge had disappeared when he reached the scene. Hitching, who was suffering from exposure, was taken to Dawson's house and both Hitching and Johnston were taken back to Toronto.

Then men had set out from Miami Beach before dawn when the weather was quiet but before long the weather turned to high winds and the lashing waves made the hunters helpless in the small boats. When the boat overturned, both men were able to cling to it but the wind was so cold their hands became stiff and Loveridge lost his grip when the boat was lifted by a wave. After their rescue, the companions hoped that he might have reached shore. Loveridge, 26, is survived by his wife, Betty.

AURORA ARENA FLOOR DUG UP FOR ICE PIPES

Tuesday of this week saw work begin inside the Aurora Memorial Arena as plans to install artificial ice in the arena are pushed in order to provide ice for the coming winter season. Excavation work, the first large inside job, got under way, with four inches of dirt being removed from the present surface.

After the tiles are laid, wooden sleepers to support the artificial ice pipes will be laid and the pipes placed on top, with one inch of sand packed around them. Following this, a one-inch binder course of asphalt hot-mix will go between the pipes and finally a one-inch surface covering the pipes of the same asphalt hot-mix. This is expected to provide a firm, hard, permanent surface, suitable for dancing, roller skating and other activities as well as ice sports.

It was also disclosed this week that Aurora may after all see the new addition to the west end of the arena go up this fall. Hopes are high that work will commence shortly on this aspect of the arena renovations.

Grass For Armitage Hts. Urged By Reeve Evans

Grass seeding to improve the appearance of the boulevard property between Eagle St. and the Armitage subdivision was suggested by Reeve Evans at Newmarket council meeting last week.

"The land is dusty in summer and muddy in winter and the property committee should look after it," said Mr. Evans.

Property committee chairman Tom Birrell asked council what the land would be used for.

"Will it be a commercial or residential area?" asked Mr. Birrell.

"That is up to you and your committee to make any recommendation," said Mayor Vale.

On the first blue prints for the subdivision, the area was marked "reserved for stores" but no authority was given to the designation. According to the engineer, at a past meeting, the designation was just put in by the technicians who designed the plans.

The balance of the 1949 grant to the Newmarket recreation commission of $200 was authorized by the town council Monday night.

CRITICS APPLAUD ABILITY

Aurora Jr. Choir Heard In Toronto

Last week Eaton Auditorium in Toronto rang with thunderous applause for the Aurora Junior church choir. The choir appeared along with Fernando Germani, organist of the Vatican, on a program presented by the Toronto Casavant Society. The program was the first of five organ musicales to be presented during the current concert season by the Society.

Presenting a group of eleven sacred and secular numbers the choir was under the direction of Lloyd Harris and accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harris.

Not only was the choir received enthusiastically by its audience of nearly 1,000, but it was

Welding Sped As Ice Machinery Begins To Arrive

November 25. Mark that date on your calendar. Artificial ice will be a reality in the Memorial Arena on that date. That is the most reliable information we can gain after talking with rink commission members and with Canadian Ice Machine Company engineer on the job. Good news indeed. Possibly proposed renovation plans will not be complete by that date but artificial ice should be installed and in operation.

Voluntary workers headed by Howard Morton, Morris Crowder, Les Woolven and Pat McLean are making grand progress with the welding and pipe fitting. All the long sections of pipe are now welded. The work of welding them on the arena floor itself started Monday evening. The headers were in place and welded Saturday and the pipes are starting to make a formidable show across the arena surface. Big job to finish in the welding will be the return bends at the far end of the arena. That licked and the job will be well on the way to completion.

Concrete floor for the ice making and heating equipment was poured on Monday. The compressor arrived Tuesday a.m. J. Hutchison, Canadian Ice Machine Co. engineer on the job here, expects the other equipment to arrive as required without any delay.

There has been considerable speculation as to the additional seating capacity under the proposed changes. It will be increased by some 600 making it possible to seat over 1,500 while the standee capacity has been set at close to the 1,000 mark.

Voluntary work continues this week. Howard Brown, president of the Newmarket Trumpet Band, has offered to bring the band, some 50 strong, down for an evening's work as soon as the sand is ready to be wheeled in. C. R. Blackstock, sports director at Pickering College, also makes a similar offer to send a work crew of his students down to lend a hand.

Here's another list of volunteers to add to the already imposing squad: Ted Gould, Ab Evans, Norm Tunney, Bill Shropshire, Keith Davis, Orval Hisey, Al Bryson, Dick Hutchinson, Joe Rundle, Aub Scythies, Geo. Haskett, Stan Gibbons, Cliff Gunn, Carl Codlin, Percy Hutchinson, Frank Keats, Harry Glenn.

Harry M. Lambert Feted At Brampton

(From The Express, Brantford) and chairman of many committees. A Brantford man who has faithfully served Lions International for 25 years was honored recently when Lions from Zone 9 held their fall rally at Hotel Kerby.

He was Harry E. Lambert who since he joined the organization in 1924 has never missed a club meeting.

Edgar M. Elbert, Maywood, Ill., third vice president of Lions International, described Mr. Lambert as "a man who has worked for this organization as no other man has."

"He is the only Lion in Canada who has had a perfect attendance record for 25 years," the official stated.

On behalf of the International organization, Mr. Elbert presented Mr. Lambert with a 25-year charter chevron with a 25-year 100 percent attendance tab.

"This is the first time I have ever had this privilege," the visitor commented.

The third vice president urged every Lion to emulate Mr. Lambert's great feat. "Perfect attendance is a courtesy you owe your club," he said. "Try to attend all your club meetings."

Highlighted in Life

Summoned to the head table, Mr. Lambert assured the gathering that the honor paid to him was "a highlight in his life."

"It is not what I have given Lionsism so much," the honored guest declared, "but what Lionsism has given me. Anything I have given I have received back 100 percent."

He paid tribute to Melvin Jones, the founder of Lions International. "He is a man with vision."

Mr. Lambert, manager of the Brantford branch of the Bank of Toronto, joined the Dunnville club when it was formed in 1924 and served that club as president.

He later transferred to the Newmarket club and while there held the distinction of serving as district governor, having been appointed at the Ottawa convention in 1936.

Six past presidents and four charter members from the Dunnville club attended Wednesday night's gathering along with four past presidents, one president, one past district treasurer from the Newmarket club.

Mr. Lambert joined the Brantford club when he was transferred here by the bank in 1947. He has taken a prominent part in community affairs. At the present time he is chairman of the program and entertainment committee of the Brantford board of trade.

As a former district governor he holds the rank of International Counsellor.

A telegram of greetings was received by Mr. Lambert from the Newmarket club. It urged Mr. Lambert, now that he had attained 25 years of perfect attendance "to shoot for 50."

In reply to this, the honored Lion said: "If the Brantford club can put up with me for 50 years, I am in there shooting."

The anniversary service at Mount Zion church will be held next Sunday, Oct. 30. Sunday-school is at 10 a.m. with the anniversary service following at 11 a.m., and in the evening at 7:30 p.m. The special speaker for the day will be Rev. C. N. Good of Kitchener and there will be special singing both morning and evening. Everyone is welcomed to these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kellington and Earl had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. Morris and family.

There was a good attendance out to Sunday-school in the morning but we are missing some of the people and children. Threshing is the order of the day around here as the farmers finish up fall work.

Mr. Elgin Cole had Sunday night tea with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. King.

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

Our reading of Evelyn Waugh's The Loved One coincided with the publication in Life Magazine recently of his report on the Catholic position in America. The latter seemed a knowledgeable piece, acutely penetrating at times. It distinguishes Waugh as a versatile and capable writer in departments other than satire for which he is best known.

Waugh was introduced to America with his novel, Brideshead Revisited. The Loved One should surely maintain his popularity here. The product of a seven-week sojourn in California in 1947, it is a satire on the burial customs practised there. It is also the means by which Waugh unburdens himself of several side comments on the British colony in Hollywood, the American female, advice to the luvorn columns and a variety of other subjects. His description of the heroine's preparations for a date is representative:

"With a steady hand, Aimee fulfilled the prescribed rites of an American girl preparing to meet her lover—dabbed herself under the arms with a preparation designed to seal the sweat glands, gargled another to sweeten the breath and brushed into her hair some odorous drops from a bottle labelled Jungle Venom—From the depth of the fever-ridden swamp, the advertisement had stated, 'where juju drums throb for the human sacrifice, Jeanette's latest exclusive creation Jungle Venom comes to you with the remorseless stealth of the hunting cannibal.'"

"Thus fully equipped for a domestic evening, her mind at ease, Aimee waited for Mr. Joy-boy's musical 'Hallo, there!' from the front door. She was all set for her manifest destiny."

Waugh's prose is lean; The Loved One, novel-length in scope and variety of situations, is only 144 pages including illustrations. Perhaps the pleasure of reading him is that by adroit limning of the high spots, he encourages an active imagination in his reader.

Another writer, with all that material that is available in a situation like the one quoted above, would risk overstatement. Waugh's strength is that he does not.

Another situation which would encourage a less capable writer to let fly with everything he has occurs at the climax when Aimee discovers it the bier of a dead parrot in a pet cemetery that her prospective husband is leading a double life—to her he is a poet. In fact he is the mortician in the pet cemetery. Waugh leads his principals to the situation and then refers to it only in remissive sentences midway through the next chapter.

Waugh is able to maintain a consistent level of interest for his readers which is a rare accomplishment even among the venerable masters of this difficult form of writing. His book has no lapses; other satirists may have been more penetrating, more subtle, of larger stature; we do not know of one who was without dull passages to be quickly skipped.

Waugh is shocking to most readers by his impersonal interest in his principals. He places them in macabre situations, whose associations are matters of delicate consideration. And does this without concession to the slightest suggestion of good taste. Perhaps that is from whence his strength as a satirist is derived. He writes with complete detachment.

His heroine, frustrated by indecision, shocked by the revelation of the double life of her

The Editorials:

Unscrupulous Attack

Leaflets calling upon Newmarket taxpayers to protest the new school were placed in mailboxes Saturday morning. It is not our intention to remark upon the charges contained in the leaflets. They are quite adequately refuted by the statement of the school board on the front page. We are more concerned in the manner of the attack for it does represent a departure from the orthodox and conclusions can be drawn from it which might throw a little light upon its origin.

Preparations for the new school have been underway since the spring of 1948 when the school board first approached the council. Progress has been reported in detail in The Era and Express, along with the specifications, architect's description and illustrations of the plans and an artist's conception of what the new school will look like. A drawing of the building has been in our front window since last spring. Why, with construction underway, is the project only now attacked?

The wording of the leaflet is obviously misleading. Possibly its author has been misinformed. But with the back files of the newspaper at its disposal, the school board members easily approached, the provincial department of education only 30 miles away, one wonders why, if ignorance was the case, the author did not make some effort to ascertain the correct facts before going to the expense of printing and mailing the leaflets.

The leaflet is unsigned. There is not even the "Citizens' Committee" signature which is standard in such circumstances. It did appear that a portion of the leaflet had been torn off the bottom. Possibly the missing portion bore the author's name, removed in a moment of shame for the undertaking.

One can only conclude, from the timing, the misinformation—and the lack of signature, that the leaflet was authorized by a crank or by someone who had a purpose, other than the welfare of the community, to achieve. In either case, there is nothing but discredit for him in the manner in which he has acted.

Parliament Redeemed

An oft-repeated criticism of the Liberal party is that it has instituted "government by order-in-council", a practice by which the government's will is made law without consultation with parliament. The advantage of the order-in-council is the promptness by which it can be enacted. The disadvantage is that its extensive use encroaches upon parliament's authority.

During the war years, orders-in-council were essential to the conduct of a wartime administration. In the immediate post-war period, economic emergency also provided some excuse for their use. Unfortunately, the practice once established became a habit difficult to break. And there is always the danger that the order-in-council might be used to pass legislation which, if debated in the house, would be thrown out.

So it is gratifying to hear that the government intends to establish a committee of the house to scrutinize orders-in-council on behalf of the whole of parliament. It is a practice which is followed in the British house where it has shown itself an efficient addition to parliamentary machinery. The advantages of promptness of enactment are retained and the disadvantage, that parliament has no opportunity to pass upon the legislation, overcome.

Welfare Capitalism

Governments are now being required to an increasing degree to underwrite the security of the individual citizen. Governments are expected to bonus, pension, subsidize—and do to the point, as in Canada, that it is possible for the unscrupulous to live entirely at the public expense. This benevolence is demanded in the name of democracy but it actually is contrary to the most fundamental tenets of democracy. Self government is predicated upon the independence of the citizens. True independence is found only in self-sufficiency. The more the citizen depends upon the government to share the burden of his existence, the more of his dependence he forfeits.

Only the hermit, content with a diet of herbs and clothed by skins, can achieve true self-sufficiency in this highly organized age. The rest of us are dependent upon others for our living. Thus we become the easy victims of the failures of others. Thousands of men can lose their jobs through no fault of their own. A town can be impoverished by a circumstance a thousand miles away. There is no choice in this; no opportunity to oppose our strengths against these misfortunes. The economic forces which function within our civilization are too strong to be resisted by individual

So actually, there is no choice for governments; they must, if they are to remain in power, assume responsibility for the individual security of their citizens. The danger is this: having begun to encroach upon the private lives of the citizens, governments have begun a process which will inevitably carry them to the extreme of the welfare state with its absolute authority.

And the citizen, as he continues to forfeit his economic responsibilities to the government, becomes increasingly dependent upon the government until he is finally the economic subject of the government. While he was without this benevolence, he had no security against economic misfortune except that which he was able to provide through his own efforts, but he did retain a measure of choice, a varying degree of freedom. Subjected entirely to the government, he has forfeited all choice, all freedom.

Progress towards the welfare state can be slowed, however, possibly even checked, if free enterprise will assume the 24-hour responsibility for its employees that the government has for the citizens. A start has been made in the establishment of contributory insurance and pension schemes which are rapidly becoming general in industry. But the employee is demanding, just as the citizen has demanded of the government, that management assume all responsibility and pay entirely the cost of these benefits.

The difference between the welfare state and welfare capitalism is that authority is not centralized in the government. Certainly it is a return to the paternalism of the past but it is far better that such paternalism be vested in individual industries than concentrated in the government. The consumer will pay the cost of this management paternalism but alternatively, he would be required to pay increasing taxes to the state for the same benefits.

The competitive nature of free enterprise is some guarantee that industry's authority over labor, as a result of its paternalism, will not be absolute. There is, however, nothing to challenge the absolute authority of the state.

Hazard At Hamilton's Corner

Hamilton's Corners has become, with the improvement of the third and fourth concessions as a highway to the lake, one of the most dangerous intersections in North York. The heavy traffic on the townline merges there with the north-south traffic of the third concession. To the north of the corner is a hill which blocks the view of cars travelling south. The turn on the town-line is heavily banked, obscuring the view towards the south and east. Traffic on both highways is swift.

At the very least, there should be warning blinker lights. At the best, the corner should be levelled and stop-lights installed. Any one of the narrow escapes at that intersection last summer might have been fatal accidents. The astonishing luck which has prevailed should not be permitted to obscure the very real danger that exists.

The Forum:

(Richmond Hill Liberal)

Even in these days of astronomical figures 500,451 is still a good round sum. So is $394,000,000.

Those figures represent the number of fires occurring in Canada during the past decade and the damage caused by them.

Even more tragic than the dollars and cents losses are the human ones. During the same ten-year period 3,441 persons lost their lives through fire. At least 14,000 others have been seriously injured.

With the approach of winter and its consequent additional fire hazards we believe that it is timely that we should suggest to our citizens that more than ordinary precautions should be taken in order to ensure that Richmond Hill and vicinity do not make any contributions to such appalling figures which we have just quoted. A big fire makes a nice headline—but we would much rather not have the opportunity of employing such headlines in The Liberal.

It's strange but nevertheless true that a family will go to considerable trouble and expense in making a home as pleasant, efficient, a centre of living as possible. Yet at the same time the most ordinary precautions to guard that investment will be overlooked. Rare is the householder who will permit a leak in the roof to continue to the point where major damage is done to walls and furnishings. Yet often, in that same house, exists hazards which imperil not only the dollars and cents investment but also the lives of loved ones.

Fire Prevention Week in Canada is over. But, in our opinion, every week during the coming months is of similar import. Fire does not watch calendars. In the interests of our community and its citizens we suggest that a thorough check-up of fire risks right now is almost mandatory—that a continuing awareness of the dangers involved is equally so.

I was aware, of course, that there was a definite relation between women's hats and dollars, and my dollars. I was not aware, however, that there was an international connection. Seems there is. Not ones to miss a good bet, the British milliners have been designing hats which are expressly intended to capture dollar sales in North America. Lady Newborough, an English flatterer, Carnegie, is over here with a collection of creations which have such fetching names as "Sweetie", "Jackie", "Uno" and "Folies Bergere". They were illustrated in an advertisement of a certain unmentionable daily paper. "Sweetie" is a jersey and fringe model, and "Jackie" is a red felt job with exotic feather trim and swept back mudguards. "Uno" is a feather trimmed maroon and orange felt beret. "Folies Bergere" is a cascade of black and white osprey feathers, very dashing.

Certainly, boss, the English are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to recapture their economic independence.

The United Kingdom information office bulletin says that a drink, popular four centuries ago in Britain, is being revived. It is mead and its revival was celebrated recently in the historic Cornish village of Gulval where it is being made. I don't know whether the celebrators were celebrating the revival of mead by drinking it.

Mead, which was much favored in Saxon times, is the name for a range of liquors derived from honey. Britain's leading authority on mead, Colonel Gayre, claims that if properly matured this liquor is equal to any of the more modern wines. He holds the position of Master of the Worshipful Company of Mead-makers, an ancient livery company which has recently been revived too. There has been no report on how this revival was celebrated either.

Two distilleries are being opened for producing mead brandy and mead liqueurs in addition to the types already being made. These are mead itself, sack mead, sack methneglin and cyser.

Mead is not unlike hock or Moselle wine but rather stronger, while sack mead is similar to Tokay, says the information office bulletin. Sack methneglin is flavored with herbs and rather resembles vermouth. Cyser is made from apple juice mixed with honey and serves the purpose of a wine such as sherry.

There is something about information offices that makes everything so clear. No doubt other readers of the information office bulletin feel this way.

The trees are all bare now with winter before us. My dog friends are increasingly concerned about the number of trees being removed along the streets and hear with regret the talk of doing away with lamp posts altogether on Main St.

A news story told of a stork overtaking a car this week. The story said: "It's no fun to have your wife giving birth to a baby in the back seat of your automobile with a hospital still two miles away, but it's handy to have a capable neighbor giving assistance."

The only answer to these dangers, of course, is a stork-proof car that can pull away from a stork on a straight run.

"Johnny, how did you get that terrible lump on your head?" Have you been fighting again?"

"No. Mammy, I haven't been fighting."

"Are you sure?"

"Sure. I was fighting. It was an accident."

"An accident?"

"Yeah. I was sitting on Jimmy Jordan, and I forgot to hold his feet."

Farm forum days are here again. We wonder why the farm people do not show more interest. Some of the reasons given are strange but true.

The farm forum, it is said, is making the farm people too intelligent and that is bad for the rest of the business. Some people never miss a chance to make a dollar at the expense of the farmer. Farm people do not like to take their turns as leaders for it means they would have to put some thought and study on the subject. Subjects were too hard and the leader could not keep the group on the subject. The group could not come to a decision on the subject so that the secretary could record and send to headquarters. People do not like to attend because they are asked to express opinions. The subjects are all handed out the week before and they did not take the time to read. Others thought there should be more entertainment. If there was lunch and entertainment the hour was too late. Others found from 8.30 to 11 p.m. was not time enough to discuss the subjects. Some object to the collection to help pay expenses.

We have a class of farmer who specializes and has extra income. This class gives all kinds of reasons for not attending farm forum. Why not be honest and say "we are doing fine and we don't care about the rest of the farmers." We have a wonderful class of farm people in our farm organizations who are fairly well off and the fluctuations of farm prices do not cause too much trouble to their farm finances. Those people were the ones who were starting in the depression of the '30's and remember how hard it was. This class has sympathy for those who are starting to farm. It is a class of people who by giving, not receiving, has built up our community. The same people are out in front in all our community enterprises.

We have three classes of farmers, those who find it hard to get along; those who are doing well and don't care and the last that have made our country by thinking and helping people other than themselves. This last class of people help their fellowman by church work, lodges, service clubs, farm organizations, and we have those who have in the past worked in organizations and because someone has done or said something, they withdrew all support even to attending meetings.

We all want and expect a good community. Those countries that have not the influence of the Christian church do not take care of their sick, aged and poor. It's the law of the jungle, the weak must go down that the strong may survive. By the actions of some of our people the law of the jungle is what they want. No one can live by themselves. From birth to death we depend on someone else.

It is the duty of everyone to contribute something to the welfare of his fellowman. We cannot all be leaders nor can we all contribute equally. Each one should contribute to the extent of his ability. It is often said that someone must be handled with kid gloves or they will get offended and won't take part. Why do we have to contend with this childish foolishness? With others you can discuss anything and they do not mind.

Could it be that one group has taught itself to be broadminded and overlook small things, while the other group takes the flimsy excuse of being offended to get out of taking a just share of the responsibility of our community? The best education is to see ourselves as others see us, not receiving, has built up our

Letters to the Editor

The editor: The Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion is making its annual Poppy Fund appeal on Saturday, Nov. 5. The citizens of Newmarket and the surrounding district have always generously supported this fund. It not only helps the disabled veterans who in the Veterans' Shops make the wreaths, poppies and other emblems, but helps the local branch of the Legion to give a helping hand to needy veterans, their families and widows. The disabled and needy veterans risked their lives for our homes and freedom; let us take this opportunity of extending in a very small way our gratitude to them. "Lest We Forget".

Rev. Henry Cotton,
Padre.

The editor: In a few days now the people of Newmarket will be asked to purchase the poppies which make it possible for the Canadian Legion here to carry on its welfare work.

This work is important, but I think one thing that perhaps has not been sufficiently stressed is the fact that the poppy is the symbol of remembrance—remembrance of the dead of two world wars.

Our memories are apt to be a little short, and were it not for this annual poppy sale I sometimes wonder if those who did not lose sons and husbands in the two wars would be as fully conscious of the sacrifice as they are. I do want to stress the importance of this one day in the year being set aside in this way.

Those who have not had experience with the Poppy Fund may perhaps be inclined to question whether the Poppy Fund is necessary here in Newmarket. I can assure them it is. It is true that the level of employment in Canada is high, but it is equally true that there are veterans, and veterans' dependents, who cannot work. It is true that we have in our Acts of Parliament considerable social legislation, but it is equally true that things such as the old age pension, and other similar allowances are inadequate in the fact of present living costs. However, and this is a fact, the majority of worthy veterans are people with a very intense personal pride. They have given Canada service during war time, many of them on two occasions. They are the type of people who hesitate to approach organized charities. Were it not for the Canadian Legion and the comradeship which was born in war, many of these deserving cases would not be known about.

The Poppy Fund enables the Canadian Legion to assist veterans, and veterans' dependents, in times of emergency. Every penny collected in Newmarket is used in Newmarket.

I would ask your support and that of the people of Newmarket in carrying on this worthy work.

Howard Hugo,
Chairman.

Foot-Notes

BY WILLIAM FOOTE
AURORA EDITOR

We would like this week to mention the outstanding work of the Aurora United church junior girls' choir. Last week the choir won the hearts of Toronto music lovers with a faultless rendition of sacred and secular numbers in the Eaton auditorium. Comments by the Toronto dailies upon the performance of the choir were lavish with praise.

Aurora has reason to be justly proud of this outstanding group. Under the direction of Illyd Harris the children attained an amazingly high degree of perfection. This with only five weeks of practice and rehearsal.

This is not the first time an Aurora choir group has brought honor to its town. Rather what is especially significant is the unusually high praise accorded the girl choir last week.

Gradually Aurora is becoming known throughout the province as the home of outstanding choral groups. Not only does this enhance the reputation of Aurora generally, but it points to Aurora as a potential cultural centre.

Both in and out of school, Aurora children receive an interesting and comprehensive musical training of a type seldom found in comparable centres. Among the children, interest is great. Too often this is not the case. The so called "arts" are often

OTTAWA LETTER

by
"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

The Abbott budget presented last Thursday evening as expected contained few surprises. First presented last March it released about 750,000 citizens from income tax rolls and reduced total income taxation for Canadians by some $270 million. The reductions could hardly be expected to be increased now.

This budget, which in large measure, went into effect last March is unique in that before discussion or adoption it has had seven months' trial and more than that, has had a pretty general endorsement by the voters in a general election.

The finance minister in his review of general economic conditions said he expected the present high level of income to continue throughout 1949.

The surplus for last year was $595 million which was $20 million more than estimated in March, and the surplus for the current year is estimated at $87 million, which if it is realized will be taken from the national debt.

During the past three years the national debt has been reduced by $1,730 million which is a notable achievement. Nevertheless it must be remembered that the total national debt still stands at $11,690 million—certainly a sizeable figure.

"Doug" Abbott is familiarly known around parliament hill as a popular minister of the government. Fifty years of age, he looks younger, and is a personable fellow with an easy and off-hand manner and easy of approach. Born at Lennoxville, Que., he was a practising lawyer in Montreal before his election to parliament in 1940. He joined the cabinet first as minister of defence in April, 1945, and became minister of finance in December, 1946. He is married, has one daughter and two sons, and in religion is an Anglican.

Famous Visitors
Many famous people visit Ottawa, but no visitor in many years created so much interest as Monday's visitor Prime Minister Nehru of India. This talented, scholarly and spiritual man is today an important world figure and as successor to Gandhi is revered by India's teeming millions. Monday he addressed the members of the senate and the house of commons and his words were listened to with interest and attention by more than 400 who crowded the parliamentary galleries. I was very much impressed by his sincerity and apparent devotion to his people as were all who heard him here.

Another world figure who made a favorable impression here recently was British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin. He is a big man, plain spoken and of few words. He started life as a farm laborer and worked as a shop clerk, dray driver and dock worker. He worked his way up to a place of leadership in the trade unionist movement and first entered the government of Winston Churchill during the war. Today as foreign secretary in the labor government he is a leader in world affairs.

Phone Bills
The Bell Telephone Company has made application to the board of transport commissioners for an increase of from 20 to 25 percent in telephone rates. The government is interested not only because such an increase would affect so many Canadian citizens, but also as a substantial telephone customer. The government's phone bill for Ottawa alone in 1948 amounted to $373,052.90, and in addition there are telephone accounts for government offices all across Canada. The proposed increase would mean an additional $80,000 in the Ottawa phone bill. M.P.'s are supplied an office telephone but are personally responsible for all long distance calls.

Rental Control
A decision on the subject of rental controls is likely to be announced soon. The housing situation in all parts of Canada has been the subject of an intensive government survey and it is apparent in many places an emergency still exists as far as housing accommodation is concerned. It is unlikely parliament will remove controls as long as these conditions remain but there likely will be amendments to make allowance for changed conditions and with the view to correcting existing cases of inequality and hardship.

Committees
As the session settles down to routine business the regular standing committees have been organized. The regular standing committees are: privileges and elections; railways, canals and telegraph lines; private bills; banking and commerce; public accounts; agriculture; standing orders; marine and fisheries; mines, forests and waters; industrial relations; debates; external affairs; printing.

Committee membership ranges from ten to 60. They meet throughout the session and discuss in detail matters which may be referred to them. Witnesses are called and questioned, briefs presented and in general consideration of bills and resolutions is of a much more thorough and detailed manner than in the Commons. A great deal of the important work of parliament is done in committee.

...for making aluminum!

RAIN! It may sound strange, but it's a fact: Every thing you see made of aluminum was made with raindrops—even the bus for which you scurry to escape the rain!

It's like this: Rain falls on high land in our north country. It runs down as rivulets and creeks. It becomes tumbling rivers. By trapping it behind dams, and guiding it through powerhouses, Alcan develops electricity—and uses it to make aluminum.

Smelting aluminum eats up vast quantities of electricity. Enough goes into making a single ton to light your house for fifteen years!

Today Alcan is prospecting for still more waterpower because Canada needs more aluminum for use at home and to sell abroad.

RAIN MEANS DOLLARS FOR CANADIANS:

- Alcan jobs for 15,000 Canadians
- Alcan pay envelopes holding $35,000,000 a year
- Alcan aluminum for more than 1,000 independent Canadian manufacturers—some 50,000 more jobs.

Fountain—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Eliza May Fountain, who passed away Oct. 27, 1943.
In a near and silent graveyard Where the trees their branches wave, Lies our kind and loving mother In a cold and silent grave. She bade no one her last farewell, She moved her hand to none Her spirit left before we knew That she from us had gone. But we know we'll meet again, When God bids this will be done. Lovingly remembered by husband and daughters, Ethel and Vera, and son, Ross. *1443

Milligan—In loving memory of our dear mother, Eliza Mary Milligan, who passed away Oct. 31, 1941.
Sadly missed as ever, Mother. Emily and Harry. *1440

Milligan—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Eliza Mary, who passed away Oct. 31, 1947.
There's a face that is haunting me ever, There's a voice that I'm longing to hear, There's a smile I'll remember forever. Though I try to forget every tear, There's a sad but sweet remembrance, There's a memory fond and true; There's a token of affection, dear mother, And heartaches still for you. Sadly missed by daughter, Martha, son-in-law Fred, and grandchildren. *1443

Mitchell—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Isabelle Mitchell, who passed away Oct. 31, 1948.
Her thoughts were all so full of us, She never could forget, And so we think that where she is She must be watching yet. As angels keep their watch up there Please God let her know That we down here do not forget We love and bless her soul. 'Tis sweet to remember a mother so dear So absent from us, yet ever so near; Unseen by the world, she stands by our side And whispers "Dear loved ones death cannot divide." So you who have a mother, Cherish her with care, For you'll never know the heart-ache Till you see her vacant chair. Too dearly remembered to ever be forgotten, Seth, Jack and Marie. *1443

Mitchell—In loving memory of our dear friend, Isabelle Mitchell, who passed away Oct. 31, 1948.
Loving and kind in all her ways, Upright and just to the end of her days; Sincere and true in heart and mind. Beautiful memories she left behind. Ever remembered by Lorne and Edith. *1443

Moffatt—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Amy Elizabeth Moffatt, who passed away Oct. 25, 1947.
We do not need a special day To bring you to our minds; For the days we do not think of you Are very hard to find. If all the world were our ours to give, We'd give it, yes, and more, To see the face of Mother dear, Come smiling through the door. Sadly missed by Violet, Harvey, Nancy and Beverley Graham. *1440

Moffatt—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Amy Elizabeth Moffatt, who passed away Oct. 25, 1947.
Oft we think of you, dear mother, And our hearts are filled with pain. Oh, this earth would be a heaven Could we hear your voice again. Two years have swiftly passed away, But still we don't forget, For in the hearts that loved you Your memory lingers yet. IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE E. ION

When Princess Elizabeth spoke to a rally of the Mothers' Union in Britain last week, she brought to the attention of the world a situation which has concerned all thinking people for sometime... the need for "the re-establishment of a wise and well-balanced code of right and wrong".

The increase in the number of broken homes in Canada is alarming. The threat to the home, the family-unit, is a real one which can only be met by a revamping of our moral thinking. Too many young people are beginning matrimony with the idea that if it doesn't work, the contract can be dissolved.

The "from this day forward" aspect of the picture is disregarded and many do not attempt to build a strong marriage which can withstand the inevitable disagreements. A captain would not take his vessel through uncharted waters without frequent soundings. How else could he avoid the reefs and shoals? He would prepare for storms. He would dare to venture from the safe moorings within his familiar harbor because he had been trained and was qualified for the task.

The home is the keystone of our civilization. If it is threatened, then our entire way of life is likewise threatened. For how can we have an honorable nation if our moral code is lax? If our children do not know the meaning of loyalty? Of integrity? Training is the answer. Education is necessary to help young adults who are contemplating marriage to assume the resulting responsibilities. As Princess Elizabeth said, this is an age of "growing self-indulgence, hardening materialism and falling of moral standards".

How many times last winter did we open the morning paper to an account of the tragic death of children, left alone in a house which during the night was gutted by fire? What was so important to the parents that they could leave their youngsters alone? You know the answers to these questions only too well, for the story became a sadly familiar one. Do parents not realize that as the child is trained so will the man be? Can they not forgo a few pleasures for the brief time that they have their

Town Hall Bulges For Fashion Show, Display

Tuesday night Newmarket Town Hall was crowded with interested spectators when the Singer Fashion Show, accompanied by displays of Main St. merchandise, featured fall garments made by the models at the Singer sewing classes.

Last season's showing, held in the Singer shop, had been handicapped by lack of space and the move to the town hall allowed room for additional displays. Even with this increased room, space to move about and to inspect the displays were at a premium, but before the evening was over everyone had ample opportunity to inspect the displays.

Display booths on the east and west sides of the hall housed exhibits from Robt. Yates, jewellers, Morrison's Men's Wear, McCaffrey Flowers, Embassy Beauty Salon, Eves' Ladies' Wear, Broadbent's Bakery, Singer Sewing Centre, Tom

Newmarket Paper Enters County Finals

On Monday, Oct. 24, the final competition in oratory for the York County Separate Schools was held in the auditorium of Holy Rosary School, Toronto. Three candidates from the three separate school inspectorates competed for the honor of representing the separate schools at the finals to be held in the near future.

Kenneth Cassavoy, age ten years, a grade VII pupil of St. John's school, Newmarket, took first place in this contest and will compete shortly in the final contest to judge the winner for the county.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

THREE PEOPLE

This is the conclusion of the story in The Common Round last week where the speaker, Mrs. Langley, told of three women who had served her household in China:

Mrs. Langley told of the third woman next, of her wonderful faithfulness, of the love the Langley children bore her, second only and hardly that, to their love of their parents. Of her work as a Christian and then she told of the second woman—a study in gratitude and faithfulness she had never seen equalled.

While she was with the Langleys, Mrs. Langley's sister, at a distant station, developed typhus fever and was in a hospital, not expected to live for her temperature was 108 degrees. Mrs. Langley was asked to come and take charge of the baby as her sister's husband would have to take the other children away and could not manage the baby.

Here was a problem for Mrs. Langley. Her own baby had always been so carefully fed, for in China no drop of milk or water can be taken and even fruit and vegetables must be cooked. What was she to do? She only expected to be away ten days, so she asked the Chinese woman if she would swear never to leave the compound and to prepare everything the baby required herself, and the woman promised.

Meantime Mrs. Langley was in for a strange trip. She had to go by the river which was low at this time with rapids and sharp drops. However, it was her only way and only by the promise of liberal "tea money" could she get boat men. But she did and for a while all went well. Then they stopped at a village and she gave the men their tea money. When they came back she found they had partaken not wisely but too well of Chinese wine and were very gay. When challenged from bank—it was civil war time—instead of answering properly, they would crowd like cocks, bark like dogs, mew like cats and laugh and go on. But strange to say, in that frail boat, with drunken oarsmen, they arrived two days earlier than the trip had even been done before.

By some miracle, her sister recovered, but she had to stay there seven weeks and often her anxious thoughts went to her own baby.

When she got back she noticed that her servant looked very badly while Mrs. Langley's baby was in perfect condition.

And here was the story. This woman's own little boy lived with his grandmother and while Mrs. Langley was away he developed scarlet fever and called for his mother continually. Did she go? Although her heart was breaking, for they told her the boy was dying, she never left the compound. When her mistress said, "I could never have been so faithful," she told her, "I promised and besides I am so grateful; you told me of Jesus Christ and I could not break my promise."

Here was gratitude such as one only sees once in a lifetime. This woman too, became a Bible woman.

In the "Three People" I read as a child, they all ended differently, in Mrs. Langley's tale they all ended the same, "workers for Christ".

MARGARET KELLEY
WED. AT HOME

Queensville Takes On Bold "New Look" As Lights On, Stores Improve

We are all pleased that the hydro installed new street lights recently. This is an improvement that has been needed for some time. The new rink, which was opened in the summer, has had the dressing rooms and other finishing touches added. The committee in charge deserves much praise for its efforts.

After making extensive alterations and adding many new features, Strasser & Son have finished their new funeral home.
They also added a large garage to their premises.

Mr. Pepper has let the contract and started to rebuild and modernize his store.

Messrs. Dorgan and McNeill, who started manufacturing hardwood caskets some time ago, have added an extension to their building and taken on more help.

These new buildings together with the three garages and two feed mills which have been built within the recent years have added much to the appearance of the business part of the village.

Hope Hobby Club Plans Progressive Euchre

place I have visited this summer, was well answered.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. David Coates with suggestions and demonstrations of home-made Christmas gifts and decorations for roll-call. Current events of interest were given by Mrs. Balsaron and the question box was conducted by Mrs. Dike.

Plans are being made to hold a progressive euchre in Sharon hall on November 22. Lunch was served by Mrs. Sheldon
Walker, Mrs. Selby Evans, Mrs.
Morley Andrews and Mrs. Cecil Pinder.

Nearly 400 enjoyed the hot turkey dinner, bingo and dance sponsored by the Optimist Club on Saturday night before Thanksgiving Day. The local ladies did a great job of handling crowds with their incomplete equipment conditions.

The management and control of the Community Centre has been finalised. The seven-person board which functions by authority of the municipal council, is charged with the completion of the building, equipment and financing. Donations so urgently needed, should be mailed or delivered to the Canadian Bank of Commerce, made out to the North Gwillimbury Memorial Community Centre.

The North Gwillimbury Athletic Association is responsible for the maintenance of the building and grounds and will receive all rents. They have made an agreement with the Optimist Club of Keswick to be managers for one year. They will rent the auditorium, rink and refreshment concessions and turn in the rents to the N.G.A.A.
It will also be their responsibility to sponsor and arrange for as many functions and projects as possible. A joint committee of three each from the N.G.A.A.
and the Optimist Club, along with the business manager, will govern the rates of rent.

The Optimist Club will join 780 other Optimist Clubs in celebrating Optimist Week, Nov. 6 to 13. Plan to join them at an open dinner Wednesday evening of that week. There will be an outstanding program and speaker.

Friday, Nov. 11, you will have another chance to sample the culinary art of the community women at an oyster supper. During the program, the owner of the new Dodge club coupe will be decided.

Saturday, Nov. 12, the Boys'
Work committee of the Optimists is planning a parade of decorated bicycles and a safety demonstration at which time every bicycle in the township will be equipped with "Scotch-Lite" if brought to the village that afternoon. Prizes and details will be announced later.

BIG YEAR ON NEW ICE SEEN BY SPITFIRES

Dewey Kuhns, general manager of the Canadian Hoffman Machinery Co., Newmarket, with the hockey bug firmly planted after two years, advised a gathering of the Spitfires, players and executives, Monday evening that his firm is willing to go along with an intermediate hockey club for another year.

Mr. Kuhns proposed that the firm advance the club the necessary funds to get started, should they have a successful year, and there's little reason to doubt with artificial ice available that it should be their best, the club could refund the Hoffman Company its advance funds and players could split the balance. Mr. Kuhns mentioned that his firm was backing the artificial ice drive to the limit and would continue to do so. The meeting accepted the proposal without a dissenting voice.

Election of officers followed with Doug Campbell being returned to the president's chair for another year with a vote of confidence. John Hines, now convalescing after an operation, was elected vice president, while Deb Cooper was chosen secretary treasurer. Under the proposed plan it was thought a player acting in the latter capacity could keep overhead at a minimum.

After a long discussion, it was suggested that Stan Smith would be asked to take on the manager's assistant. The all important post of coach was left vacant for the time being until a further meeting could be called when several names would come up for discussion.

Ten of last year's players were on hand. Meeting closed on an optimistic note as several new players were mentioned as possible candidates for a berth with the club.

Sardines are young herring.

NEWS 'N' VIEWS

By GEORGE HASKETT
ERA AND EXPRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Out the window goes the summer sports programs. Desk was beginning to look like Fibber McGee's cupboard on one of its worst days with baseball scorebooks. Only one item left, that of figuring out batting averages. Better have a huddle on that one.

Maybe it was the fall atmosphere, maybe Ted Bennett's solid hurling or Aurora's home-run slugging. Anyhow, there's a new champion in North York softball. It's those pesky Aurora "Met-eors". They've been trying for years and years and finally did it Saturday. After almost six months' campaigning—that had its moments, and many lulls—the slate was finally wiped clean Saturday. Coach Charlie Ryan of the victors: "It's wonderful, just wonderful. I'm the happiest guy in North York." And no wonder. Mind you, Aurora knew it had been in a battle. Like the sporting clan they are, the Vets stepped right up to congratulate the new champs.

Coach Chuck VanZant and manager "Cee-gars" McDonald were of one mind: their lease on the Spillette trophy being broken wouldn't hurt the league fortunes one bit. Certainly, the softball league this year had its ups and downs, many of the latter. Three times, teams failed to show for Vets' home games. Fact of the matter is, Vets had but eight home fixtures including one with New Toronto. Not enough to finance a club by any means.

Fans came and supporters and players alike went home cussing the league because a scheduled team failed to show. President Fred Morris with little help tried valiantly to make the best of a difficult job. Thing to do, and the league proxy has it in mind, is to call a league convention right away quick, organize for next year, elect officers, then bingo, spring comes, league executives meet, schedule drawn up and we're off. One thing is certain: if the league is to prosper and there's no reason why it shouldn't—must put teeth in clause regarding failure of teams to be on the job on time and ready to fulfil their schedule.

Final sidelights from the big game. Catch of the afternoon was that by Dick Hamon. Our boy Dick came racing in on a drive by Ted Bennett into left field, turned around and fled back, shoved up a hand and there was the ball sticking there nice as you please. Fans blinked on that one and little wonder. "Cee-gars" McDonald talks of retiring after a four-year span at the helm, but don't take him too seriously—ball players, coaches, managers and so forth each season about this time make a gesture to toss in the sponge. Come spring, call for action—and there they are, large as life and twice as natural.

Newmarket ladies are preparing for a big evening Friday, Nov. 4, at Barrie and District Ladies' Softball League annual banquet and presentation. Barrie is the site this year. Skipper and league president Frank Courtney notes calls have gone out for each team to submit a list of proposed officers to go before the house at November 4 session. With executives named and ready, there is no delay in the spring. Incidentally, our gals had a successful season and shortly will be taking bows in their championship jackets.

Haskett's Hash: Last advice we have is Vets propose to go ahead with their Memorial Park at the fair grounds. Those chaps doing the arena voluntary work aren't selfish by any means. Councilor VanZant mentioned floodlights were the next necessity and they chimed right in with let's get going on it next.

Freeze dept.: Spitfires convene this week for first official hockey chin wag. Seven man board of rink commissioners, Tom Birrell, Bert Morrison, Jim Walker, Bill Geer, Ray Jelley, Dewey Kuhns and Leo Cull meet this week. Must advertise without delay for rink manager and engineer—two jobs that is. Mickey Smith heading the sport slate at the Legion has orders to get cost of sponsoring midget team. Joseph Dales, president of the newly formed Optimist club, primarily interested in boys' work, indicates they will seriously consider sponsoring a minor hockey team. That's the spirit!

BADMINTON CLUB

The election of officers for the Newmarket Badminton club, due for attention Monday evening, has been postponed because of the considerable number of the members attending other meetings. Jack Hamilton, president of last season, hopes to convene the members later this week. Following the installation of new officers, plans for the coming season will be considered.

Sheet Metal and Machine Shop swept up five points apiece Friday in the Hoffman league. Stores and Vorelone picked up a deuce in each case. Sheet Metal are roosting atop the parade with 15, Stores and Press Shop with 12, Machine Shop 11 and finally Vorelone six. Allen Daniels grabbed the lion's share of the gravy with 687 on a string of 289, 206 and 192. Grant Blight was right on his heels with a pin spilling run of 673 with Morris Crowder 628, Ivan Ruddock 618 and "Cee-gars" McDonald with 605 in that order.

Hazel Bennett rolled up 583, cracking out a 223 first game, dropping back to 161 middle game and closing out with 199. That shooting gave her top ranking in the Thursday night ladies' league. Next in order were Myrt Dunn with 579, Helen Coveney 557, Norma Peel 504, Olive Hughson 501 and Marie McCabe at an even 500.

Len Burling shot his team to the top of the Davis Leather league with a record shattering 705. Burling's boys now have pushed their point total to 21. Harry Thomas' sextet have 19, Geo. Smart's 18 and cellarites are Walt Groves' trundlers with 12. Other Tannery scores worth a plug were Harry Thoms 720, Bill Cullen 713 and Art Bennington 660.

Just about where we left off last year. Laura Whitfield led the Office Specialty Ladies' Thursday, going over the double century mark in every game for a 651 total. Nora McIntosh with 496 stepped into the runner-up spot. Eva Whitfield 490, Grace Osmond 475 and Joyce Vandenberg 473 kept in the hunt. It's a three-team league with Laura Whitfield, Joyce Smith and Joyce Vandenberg being the respective captains.

There's a red hot race on in the Monday night ladies' league for top rating. Aces and Deuces—sounds like a rummy hand—are front runners at the moment with five each, Jokers and Rookies four apiece, and Snooks and Ius-kies have three each. The gals, usually in a pin-shattering mood, were off the mark last week. League secretary Floss Campbell was the exception, registering a 690 to head the slate, starting away with a 167, a 161 middle neat 272 in the finale. Other game and hit up the pace for a efforts in the pin spilling of note were Muriel Gunn 562, Billie Blandy 530, Audrey Stevens 555, Hazel Bowser 549, Phyl McIntosh 549, Bea Daly 548, Claire Pollock 546, Jeanne Gatti 537.

Art Peppiatt's crew has salted away ten points to lead the Office Specialty officers' league. Three teams, Don Burch's, Tommy Scott's and Roy Bennett's are tied with six while Geo. Phimister's six are doing a repeat of last year to corner the bottom rung with four. "Get 'em up there, Phim". Craig McKenzie on 246 single was the hot shot shooter Tuesday. Jack Adams rolled 238 for second. Don Burch was high performer in the three-game brackets with 655, Tommy Scott with 630 and Geo. Phimister 629 next on the list. Jack Malcolm is league president, Earl Willis secretary-treasurer.

ON THE SKI TRAILS

Here we go again, fellow skiers. We're off to a wonderful start this year. Everything is just k-o-p-a-c-e.

On October 19, we held our annual elections. The results were: pres., J. Edwards; vice-pres., W. Manning; sec.-treas., R. Budd.

Due to many other activities, the attendance at the meeting was not as high as expected with only 14 showing up, so the executive decided to hold a general meeting for ski enthusiasts on Wednesday, Nov. 2, at 8 p.m. over the fire hall. We need lots of support to put over our program this year, so be sure to attend this meeting to find out how your club operates and what it offers you.

We sent two members of our club to the annual fall meeting of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association in Huntsville on the weekend of Oct. 22 and 23. They were C. Bell and Orla Larsen. They will have an interesting report on the meeting ready for us next Wednesday night, so be sure you're there. —O. L.

ROD-GUN CLUB HONORS BRIDE AND GROOM

The Newmarket Rod and Gun club met at the home of president Albert Higginson on Friday in a surprise party to honor the secretary-treasurer, Vic Higginson, and his recent bride. A presentation was made inscribed with "For the best catch of the year". Gifts included door chimers and a cake lettered "Best wishes, from the gang".

Out-of-town guests included Toronto members, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Litwin, and party, Mrs. Albert Higginson, the much surprised hostess, was heartily thanked for an enjoyable evening.

PLEASED WITH RESULTS

The Aurora Boy Scouts and Cubs held their annual Apple Day in Aurora Saturday. In spite of the bad weather, they were more than pleased with the results. Much thanks is due to the officers at the Salvation Army who kindly let them use their hall as headquarters, and to all who so generously donated to their cause.

9th Inning Rally Gives Meteors Softball Crown

There's a new king in North York softball. It's Aurora "Meteors". The Meteors busted the three-year monopoly Newmarket "Vets" have had on the title of the Joe Spillette trophy Saturday afternoon. An uprising in the last of the ninth carried two runs across giving the new champs a 6-4 win.

Here's the picture: Four-all second. The Aurora back-stopper was home free as Earl MacDonald pushed out a three-bagger. Bill VanZant struck out "Doo-ey" Doolittle and got Geo. Rumney to bounce out third to first to stall off further scoring damage.

That brought about the fourth all tie and the dramatic ninth innings finish.

Dick Hamon stole the fielding spotlight. Ken Tupling led the Newmarket hit-smiters with three, Art Crean on a similar mission for Aurora with two safeties. Good pitching by both Bill VanZant and Ted Bennett.

Hail the new champions: A. Crean, H. Rose, N. Stunden, M. Clement, E. MacDonald, L. Doolittle, G. Rumney, J. Rumney, T. Bennett, coach C. Ryan, manager L. Holman; Newmarket Vets: T. Mosier, K. Tupling, C. Arnold, J. Tumney, C. VanZant, D. Hamon, J. Hisey, F. Dillman, W. VanZant, manager, J. W. McDonald.

H.S. Ass'n. Entertains Graduates At Dinner

Members of the 1949 graduating class of the four elementary schools were guests of Newmarket Home and School Association at the annual banquet on Wednesday, Oct. 19. The banquet was held at Trinity United church and there were 84 in attendance. The evening proved a great success with everyone entering into the spirit of the occasion. Speeches were humorous and brief, food was well prepared and served by the members of the Association. The children, dressed in their best clothes with faces polished to a shine, relaxed and thoroughly enjoyed their party.

Head table guests included: Mrs. M. B. Seldon, chairman of the public school board, Bernard McHale, chairman of the separate school board, H. A. Jackson, Samuel Jefferson, Mr. Blackshaw, Herman Fowler and Mrs. E. A. Mitchell.

Fay Billing was at the piano for the toast to the King which was made by Mr. Jefferson. The toast to the graduating class was propped by Mr. Jackson and responded to by Stephanie Rourke. The toast to the teachers was made by Glen Keffer and Barbara Lewis moved the vote of thanks for the graduating class.

Mr. Jackson and Mr. Jefferson were the recipients of gifts from the pupils of their classes.
